tonight and I was swimming this afternoon. Margaret spoke at Y.W.C.A. Meting last night on Christmas in India. She goes her oration in Chapel tomarrow, poor kid,

I like the Merchants Exchange lots, I have been there two days.

I have a book out of the school library, Turmoil is the name. by Booth Tarkington. It is very good, what I have read of it.

Yesterday in Chapel the Class of 1923 presented to the school a bust of Dr. Sprague. One of the boys of 1923 was the sculptor. It was marvelous. The present students of Wyo. gave him a basket of red roses with 86 in it. Today Dr. gave us a story of his life. It was real interesting, the only thing was a bird got in somehow & flew all around over our heads & lit on the pipes of the organ. haha

Don't forget the book Make sure it isn't in that one I'm writing. Lovingly Helen
